

■ What the Certification offers

- √ A common standard for a comprehensive and standardized Supply Chain approach at all stages, including suppliers and customers.
- √ Common communication language of those involved in the supply chain.
- √ Independent and International recognition.
- √ In addition to the classic topics, it approaches a range of topics such as globalization, management, IT, cross-department relationships, collaboration, etc.

■ Benefits for Employers

- √ It certifies your professional competence.
- √ Acquisition of a common communication language with the global logistics Association.
- √ Enhance your CV and your career prospects.
- √ Strengthen your professional confidence, especially when you do not have significant studies or previous service in Logistics.
- √ Learn the interdependence of business operations and their overall optimization.

■ Benefits for Executives

- √ Your staff acquires common knowledge and supply chain management language and focus on the overall optimization of business operations.
- √ You standardize the way Logistics works regardless of the staff turnover.
- √ You gain a competitive advantage and better chances of collaborating with Clients and Partners from Europe and Globe.
- √ Your staff is empowered, motivated and activated for increased performance.